

EID CELEBRATION A RESOUNDING SUCCESS!

Over 130 attend Adamsdown event

Eid is a Muslim holiday that marks the end of Ramadan, the Islamic holy month of fasting. The month of Ramadan is a time for spiritual reflection, prayer, doing good deeds and spending time with family and friends.

The fasting is intended to help teach Muslims self-discipline, self-restraint and generosity. It also reminds them of the suffering of the poor, who may rarely get to eat well.

Eid is an Arabic word meaning "festivity" and this was certainly the case on Saturday the 4th October when members of the Muslim community joined together to celebrate the break of the fast!

CCHA and Communities First in Adamsdown supported a small group of CCHA tenants wishing to hold this important event. Over 130 people attended the celebrations held at St German's Hall in Adamsdown.

They enjoyed many activities such as balloon art, henna art, face painting and circus skills. Of course, plenty of food was provided by a local resident who supplied curries, rice and samosas a deserved treat to all those who fasted during Ramadan.

We hope everybody who attended had a great time and wish them all the best for the coming year.
