

Eid Celebrations an Outstanding Achievement

Over 170 attend the Adamsdown Event

Eid Ul-Fitr often abbreviated as Eid, is a Muslim Holiday to mark the end of Ramadan, the holy month of fasting. Ramadan is intended to teach the Muslim patience, modesty and spirituality.

Eid is an Arabic word meaning 'Festivity' which was certainly the case on Saturday 26th September. Members of the Muslim community came together to celebrate the break of fast.

CCHA and Communities first in Adamsdown worked as a partnership deliver the celebrations at St Germans Hall in Adamsdown which over 170 people attended. At least 50 more than last year!!

Everyone enjoyed activities including face painting, arts and crafts, badge making, circus skills, bouncy castle and Henna art.

Plenty of food was supplied as a well deserved treat for all those who fasted during Ramadan.

CCHA and Communities first in Adamsdown worked as a partnership deliver the celebrations at St Germans Hall in Adamsdown.

This year over 170 people attended. At least 50 more than last year!!

Everyone enjoyed the activities on offer which included:

- face painting
- arts and crafts
- badge making
- circus skills
- bouncy castle
- Henna art.

Plenty of food was supplied as a well deserved treat for all those who fasted during Ramadan.

We hope that all who attended had a fantastic time and wish them all the best for the coming year!